

The StrideFree® General Purpose rider is free to roam on the weekends living life in the saddle. Riding down the road, up the mountains - a free spirit.

Their horse is their life. They enjoy the freedom, to escape, ride for hours, to get fresh country air, to clear their mind and soul.

This rider proudly displays their Peter Horobin saddle in their lounge room for all to see.

STRIDE
FREE®

The StrideFree® General Purpose saddle is the perfect saddle for the discerning everyday rider. Suitable for all ages that offers support and comfort, and for pleasure riders who would like something that caters for various disciplines. It combines the lightweight forward cut design of a jump saddle with the slightly deeper seat of a dressage saddle.

Built on the StrideFree® tree for complete freedom in horse shoulder movement

- Fully adjustable tree from extra wide to narrow
- Comfortable soft seat
- Slightly deeper seat than traditional jump saddles, for a more secure position
- Generous channel width for spinal clearance
- Versatile design, ideal for jumping, trails, hunting, and all-round pleasure riding
- Soft Grippy leather
- Narrow twist
- Wool flocked panels that can be easily repacked on site
- Adjustable knee blocks

Size: 16.5", 17", 17.5", 18", 18.5"

Discipline: Dressage, Jumping, Trail, Hunting

Knee Block Options: GP

Colours may vary from this representation to the actual product.